

The John Perry Academy Online Participation 2023

The Academy, an advanced program: $1380

- Two master classes/one with Artistic director, John Perry, another with world-renowned piano professors
- Eligible to request for private lessons with an additional fee of $220 per lesson (45min.)
- Lecture series every day (access to the recording)
- Access to the live stream of all events (access to the recording)
- Performing in the final concert via zoom: There is a large projector and screen on the stage of the concert hall.
- Meet the mentor program/career consultation with additional cost of $300
- Performance certificate with personal commentary of John Perry

The Junior Academy, an intermediate program: $425

- Master Class with world-renowned artist-faculty everyday
- Eligible to request for private lessons with an additional fee of $220 per lesson (45min.)
- Everyday classes such as Technique, sight reading/learning new pieces, efficient practicing, music theory, music history, piano literature, and performance classes
- Lecture series every day (access to the recording)
- Performing in the final concert via zoom: There is a large projector and screen on the stage of the concert hall.
- Performance certificate

*Classes will be operated hybrid.

*The recording of the lesson/masterclass can be provided with an additional fee